LOCATION:

Martin Luther King Center
140 E 12th Street, National City, CA

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course will educate attendees in the law enforcement community in matters of inmate radicalization. Topics covered include a history of the phenomenon, information on the various types of Islam and their role, or lack thereof, in the radicalization process, the impact of radicalization, its process, case studies, radicalization indicators, and the resources available to effectively share information inside and outside the jail/prison systems about these groups. Attendees will also learn the current trends including recruiting techniques across the United States and specifically within the CDCR as well as the influence international groups have on local extremists.

INSTRUCTOR:

Lt Arnel Bona is a Correctional Lieutenant at CDCR Headquarters. His current assignment is the Criminal Intelligence Analysis Unit supervisor and assistant Terrorism Liaison Officer Coordinator. Previously, he was the Agency Representative to the Governor's Office of Homeland Security; Tactical Leader (SWAT) for San Quentin State Prison; Basic Correctional Officer Academy Sergeant; and Tactical Firearms / Impact Munitions Instructor. Arnel is a retired CA Army National Guard – Military Police First Sergeant. Combat and peace time deployments include: Operation Iraqi Freedom; Operation Desert Storm; Operation Gulf Coast Relief (Hurricane Katrina); and Operation Garden Plot (Los Angeles Riots). Arnel's awards and decorations include a Bronze Star for service; Army Commendation Medals; and Army Achievement Medals.
